

Forbidden Family: My Life as an Adoptee Duped by Adoption

Raised from infancy as an only child, 18 year old Joan Mary Wheeler knows only that she was adopted. In her senior year of high school in 1974, she is found by siblings she did not know she had. They tell her that she was the youngest of five children born to married parents, that their mother died when she was three months old, and that her name was Doris Michol Sippel. What happens next is the unfolding of family secrets and betrayal, joys of discovery, sadness of time lost, and the push and pull of two families on the one person they share. This adoption reunion reaches across the North American continent, the Atlantic Ocean, and spans four decades. This is also the story of one woman who examined her two different birth certificates for 40 years and asks, Why did New York State Health Department, Division of Vital Statistics, change my identity?
