

Adventures in Anaesthesia: The Theatre of Theatre

In awe of the calm capabilities of the anaesthetic registrar, Dr Ellie May embarks on an anaesthetic training programme. At first bewildered by the new drugs and unfamiliar equipment she quickly learns the skills both she and the patient need to survive. From difficult surgeons in theatre to screaming midwives in labour ward, Dr May recounts her experiences as she ascends the ranks in the speciality. Heartfelt, honest and at times hilarious, Dr May sheds light on what really happens after you go to sleep...
