

Pushed to the EDGE (1) (Volume 1)

Claudia Jones was intrigued about politics and her new career as a Program Manager with the Housing Department in the Governors Office. She had the opportunity to meet senators, city council members and mayors and attend many political engagements. Claudia meets Jon at the Governors mansion while admiring the art portraits in the foyers of the party. Jon is a business entrepreneur / con man who tries to convince her to get involved with him. Being reluctant and very suspicious she decides not to because she was in a loving relationship. Jon takes a painting from the mansion in return for her love and Claudia continued to reject him. She loved politics and how it served her community while working at the Capitol. She didnt want to jeopardize her job to be involved in a relationship with Jon. Although there is altercation, deception and betrayal in the workplace with her colleagues she emerges into new advancements and opportunities which will lead her to Washington D.C. Claudia always trusts in God and believed that he is always working behind the scenes in her life.
