

Boston (America)

The Puritan City. The Cradle of Liberty. The City on a Hill. Boston. A bustling, sprawling New England metropolis, its a city that has continued growing since its founding in 1629. A place deeply rooted in the collective American consciousness as the Revolutions birthplace. Its a place famous for its cuisine; the better-of-the-two clam chowders, the baked beans, the lobsters, and the steamed clams. Its an amazing, welcoming, vibrant city, and it comes to life here in over 90 pages of photographs.
