

A Prison Diary (CH)

His ear for a good story gives the world insights into parts of the prison system other writers have not reached. JONATHAN AITKEN THE MAIL ON SUNDAY On Thursday, 19 July 2001, after a perjury trial lasting seven weeks, Jeffrey Archer was sentenced to four years in jail. He was to spend the first twenty-two days and fourteen hours in HMP Belmarsh, a double A-Category high-security prison in South London, which houses some of Britains most violent criminals. This is the authors daily record of the time he spent there.
