

Memorial of Edward C. D. Lines: Late Captain of Co; C, 2d Regt Kansas Cavalry (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Memorial of Edward C. D. Lines: Late Captain of Co; C, 2d Regt Kansas Cavalry Eddie, as he was familiarly called in the family circle, was born in New Haven, Conn., in May, 1836. His childhood and youth were marked by the same attractive traits of character that distinguished his maturer years. He was always a favorite in every circle with which he was in any way connected. His parents cannot recollect a single instance when, by any misconduct of his, they felt a pang or shed a tear. His whole life was specially marked in a preeminent degree by an unselfish, self-sacrificing spirit; and in this spirit, when the peril of the nation called upon the people to rally for its salvation, it may be truly said of him as of thousands of others, Thy life a willing sacrifice was given, Thy countrys life to save. To treasure up therefore in a permanent form, some suitable memorials of his useful life and heroic death, these papers have been arranged and published. Unavoidable circumstances have occasioned protracted delay, but it is believed, nevertheless, that what should have been done at an earlier period may be wisely, appropriately and profitably done now. May we not hope that many of the young men of our day may find in these pages another incentive, to a higher and purer life.
