

7,777 INCREDIBLE QUOTES: KNOWLEDGE IS WHERE YOU FIND IT: Snippets of Wisdom to Encourage Your Mind

7,777 INCREDIBLE QUOTES There's a modern term called networking. It means having a relationship with other people to develop one's career. Think of reading a massive book of quotes as a type of networking towards developing your wisdom. The world is a confusing place and how can it hurt to have the guidance of thousands to help untangle the bewilderment? Others have said words worth reading and words worth remembering. Mark Twain said, - Don't part with your dreams. When they are gone you may still exist, but you have ceased to live. Emily Dickinson said, - That it will never come again is what makes life so sweet. Abraham Lincoln said, - Do I not destroy my enemies when I make them my friends? Such words can be heartening and stimulating. Many are the utterings from wise people long gone and they reflected a time when honor, self-discipline and respect were expected. Perhaps by looking to the past we each may find our own path to the future? Napoleon Hill said, - Failure is nature's plan to prepare you for great responsibilities. Goldie Hawn said, - I have witnessed the softening of the hardest of hearts by a simple smile. George Washington Carver said, - Ninety-nine percent of the failures come from people who have the habit of making excuses. 7,777 INCREDIBLE QUOTES is a very large book containing hundreds and hundreds of pages. You will not doubt be entertained and even inspired for hours, and hours and then hours more. I'm hopeful that a few of the quotes or a few dozen will assist you in your journey forward. Well-known author and political columnist William Safire said, William - No one flower can ever symbolize this nation. America is a bouquet. Famed women's rights leader Gloria Steinem said, - A woman without a man is like a fish without a bicycle. Renowned How to Baby Book Author Dr. Benjamin Spock said, - Trust yourself. You know more than you think you do.
