

This May Hurt a Little...: The Life and Misadventures of a Country Doctor

The world of a country GP has always been full of unique characters but even the most far-fetched and imaginative television scriptwriter could never come near to describing what actually happens. Equally, no medical school could ever adequately prepare a doctor for what they are about to experience. In his years as a country GP, working in the Devon area, Dr Jeremy Bradshaw-Smith has seen a side of life so fantastic that you couldn't make it up and that will have you rolling in the aisles. You just wouldn't believe what happens behind closed doors!
