

Coaster Crusade

Two Men, Thirty Roller Coasters
What happens when two guys from Mississippi want to ride lots of roller coasters, but there are no roller coasters in Mississippi? Road trip! And not just any road trip. Four days. Thirty roller coasters. Plus they live to tell the tale. With all the books written about Disney and Universal theme parks, you'd think there weren't any others. But there are lots of regional parks scattered across the United States, and many of them are best-known for their roller coasters: steel, wood, and screams. Coaster connoisseurs Bryce and Zach, school teachers by day, put up their chalk and pull down their lap bars for a wild trek to ride more roller coasters than you'll probably ride in your life. Bryce and Zach's tales from their coaster crusade include: Apollo's Chariot, the first hypercoaster on the crusade, lives up to its godly aspiration, but the nearby Loch Ness Monster turns out to be just a big fish story. Intimidator 305, in Kings Dominion, nearly puts Bryce down for the count. Fury 325, the tallest and fastest giga coaster in the world, tests Zach's fear of heights. The boys tackle over two dozen other coasters, share historical background and trivia, and vividly describe what it's like to ride. Plus, a behind-the-scenes VIP coaster tour, amusement park foodie finds, migraines, blackouts, paralytic fear, and more! JOIN BRYCE AND ZACH ON THEIR ROLLER COASTER ROAD TRIP!
