

The Thinner Blue Line: The Life of a Female Metropolitan Police Officer

I didnt always want to be a police officer, but what a life so far This short story is a true, and sometimes shocking account of Matthews past decade as a female officer in Londons Metropolitan Police Service. Matthews describes the ups and downs, obstacles and challenges faced on the frontline of the streets of London, and also later on in her career as a detective in the hectic and often harsh world of crime.
