

Depravity: A Narrative of 16 Serial Killers

Their crimes span the globe, but one thing unites them: They are 16 of the 20th century's most notorious serial killers. In this well-researched volume, discover their motives and what made them tick. Walk the path of the investigators who broke their cases and listen to the killers' own words. All of them made their communities tremble in fear. They include: Johann Otto Hoch, who moved to America from Germany in the 1890s and married a string of women. Instead of being the man of their dreams, he became their worst nightmare. Fritz Haarmann, The Vampire of Hanover, who killed dozens of young male vagrants and prostitutes from 1919 to 1924 in Germany. Bela Kiss, a Hungarian serial killer, who killed young women and tried pickling them in giant metal drums. Robert Hansen, who began killing prostitutes in Alaska around 1980. He let them flee in the wilderness before hunting them down with a knife and rifle. Learn about these and other serial killers. See what motivated them to lead such horrible lives and how they were finally brought to justice in Depravity: A Narrative of 16 Serial Killers. Harvey Rosenfeld, a lifelong baseball fan, is the author of several highly regarded biographies, including Raoul Wallenberg: Angel of Mercy and Roger Maris: A Title to Fame, one of the American Library Association's best books of 1991. He teaches at Pace and St. John's Universities and is the founding editor of Martyrdom and Resistance, a Holocaust bimonthly.
