

Diary of a Trance Medium

Diary of a Trance Medium follows the story of Angies first meeting with her new and somewhat unorthodox spirit guide Richard and continues with many amusing and spooky adventures as they travel throughout the UK demonstrating trance, running workshops and attending houses that are plagued by disquieted spirits. Stories range from the amusing tale of the ghost hamster, the lusty cavalier and the hanged man of Glastonbury to more spine chilling encounters such as night time visits from negative entities. The book also carries the essential message that no matter how you work spiritually and with which spirit guide that all these interactions are completely natural and that are well within the reach of anyone who wants to follow a spiritual path and to shine their light in this world.
