Dickens collection, Thackeray collection and other rare books and autographs from the library of Mr.
Edwin W. Coggeshall of New York

For many years Mr. Edwin W. Coggeshall has been a buyer of literary rarities and now has a large and valuable collection of books, manuscripts, and autograph letters. Those which are here catalogued embrace only a small part of his collection, and they are to be sold to permit a more convenient arrangement of his general library. His Dickens Collection, which has long been recognized as one of the very best, and in presentation copies as superior to all others, is the most valuable that has ever been offered for sale by auction. The Thackeray collection is not quite so large but it contains many rare and desirable items. The miscellaneous books and autographs are interesting and valuable. A few words about each of these divisions may aid collectors to grasp the importance of this sale. The most important single item in Mr. Coggeshall's Dickens Collection is the Pickwick, and beyond all question this is the finest copy that has ever been offered at public sale. It is, of course, in the original green pictorial wrappers, all dated 1836; and it has the four scarce addresses, all the advertisements, the set of forty-eight additional plates, with the Seymour and Phiz duplicates, the unused plate by Buss, and the wrappers of No. 1 of Library of Fiction, containing the very scarce preliminary notice. With this magnificent copy of Dickens's immortal Mork, which has the points that collectors look for, is a page of the Original Manuscript. The importance of this addition, which Mr. Coggeshall made by a private purchase in England, may be judged from the fact that of the entire manuscript only about thirty pages are known to be in existence. This page may be the only one that will ever be offered for sale.
