

One Over X (Episode One) From the Inside to the Closer

There are no paradoxes; everything is an illusion. In the technopolis of New Amsterdam, the largest city on the continent, Andy Hunter is a lower level technician lost in the tangled confusion of all the What ifs of life. The question is... whose life is it? Lost in the nearly infinite alternative lifetimes of a multitude of other selves, Andys only hope of returning to his place of origin is the replication of the critically flawed device that he had constructed in his native reality. Unexpectedly the way back leads only to further complication and frustration. The new device unleashes magical powers while unlocking access to a fantastic world intrinsically linked to Earth.
