

Lets Just Take This Outside

Corporate America can be very exciting but also nerve racking. For many of us, it is considered to be a major part of the American dream. We dress it up and glamorize it hoping to convince ourselves that it is exactly what we have always dreamed about. Sometimes it is. Most often, it is not. The truth is that we immediately classify it as just another no frills part of life. Finally, we are forced to conclude that we had taken our dream too seriously. Lets Just Take This Outside! says all of the things we wanted to say. With humor and sarcasm, yet without exaggeration, here lies the center of our tailwind. This is an inside view of exactly what we endure in the workplace.
