

Biographical Sketch of Enoch Long, Vol. 2: An Illinois Pioneer (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Biographical Sketch of Enoch Long, Vol. 2: An Illinois Pioneer In July, 1878, was formed at Sabula, Iowa, a Society of Union Veterans, from the former soldiers and sailors of the Union army and navy who had served during the War of the Rebellion. Its scope was soon enlarged to include those who had served their country in previous wars, and thus Enoch Long became a member of that society. By a clause in its constitution, it is provided that the duties of the Orderly Sergeant shall be essentially that of Secretary. He shall be the Historian of the Society, and shall carefully arrange and preserve all records, writings, and other data pertaining to the wars of the United States that may be given him by members of the Society and others for that purpose. Later action of the Society provided that each member be furnished with a pamphlet-bound book, containing printed questions, followed by blank spaces, the answers to the questions forming a skeleton sketch of the life and military history of each member.
