

Careers in Music: How to Get a Job as a Cruise Ship Musician

Careers in Music: How to Get a Job as a Cruise Ship Musician Have you been wondering how you could get a job playing music that allowed you to travel all over the world and have someone pay you to do it? If so look no further. Thousands of musicians each year work on cruise ships, and the best part is, it is open to everyone. Whether you play classical music or rock and roll, are part of an established group or an individual looking to go it on your own, cruise ships are looking for you. I have been working on cruise ships for over 6 years I still remember the struggle of trying to find my way onto my first ship. After I finally made it on board I realized that while part of the trick of this industry is getting in, staying in can also be a challenge if you dont know what to expect.

So the book is broken up into 3 parts, and some of the topics in each section are: Part 1 Finding a Job What is the Perfect Job for You How Long are the Contracts How Much Does it Pay Do I Really Need an Agent Part 2 Getting the Job What Exactly Do I Do Anyhow What Do I Need to Send In How Do I Audition for the Show Band Part 3 Keeping the Job What Life is Really Like On Board Whatever You Do, Dont Forget This If you have ever tried to navigate the websites to find out contact information you know how frustrating that can be. So I have included extra pages of contact information so that you know exactly who to contact so that you could be working on your first cruise within a couple of weeks. That information alone will save you tons of time. This quick read gives you real valuable information to start a new career in music as a cruise ship musician. Get your copy now
