

Making Big Money in 1600: The Life and Times of Ismail Abu Taqiyya, Egyptian Merchant (Middle East Studies Beyond Dominant Paradigms)

Nelly Hannas work challenges the standard perceptions about Middle East society and economy of the seventeenth century. Both novel in its approach and information, this books central theme revolves around the rise of an indigenous form of capitalism existing as early as the 1600s. Making Big Money in 1600 examines the reemergence of the economic sector and its complex influences on social conditions during this time. By examining the life and work of Ismail Abu Taqiyya, Hanna traces the relationship between economic activities and culture.
