

My Cup Runneth Over

The true spirit of a champion lies within the one that never gives up the fight. No matter how many times they get knocked down, they are never counted out. My Cup Runneth Over is the heartfelt testimony of an ordinary womens journey from being angry with God and not truly trusting Him to knowing that God is all she will ever need for true joy and prosperity in life. You will smile, laugh, cry and even have an ah ha moment or two. You will be inspired, encouraged and motivated to build your relationship with Christ, increase your relationship with Him or simply take inventory and marvel at how truly blessed you are for being His child and an heir to his kingdom. Do not let fear, anger, or your past keep you from your blessings. God is waiting for you. Let today be the beginning of that fresh anointing. Eureka Mason is the mother of a beautiful and intelligent daughter. As a veteran of the Armed Forces she holds a Bachelors degree in Religion with a minor in Christian Counseling from Liberty University as well as a Masters of Arts in Religion with a concentration in church ministries. A California native and world traveler, Eureka enjoys motherhood, serving in ministry, road trips, being an auntie and of course writing. She is grateful to God for the gifts and talents he has bestowed upon her life and seeks to continue to use them for His glory. She is also thankful to all those who have blessed her life over the years and would not allow her to quit. She shares this blessing and success with them all.
