

Napoleon III, Empress Eugenie and Her Secret Duke of Sesto: Imperial Wedding of Old Paris- Personal History of Second Empire France Entwined with ... Compiègne, Fontainebleau and Versailles

Summary: Frustrations of a single woman and the Napoleonic heir of France that led to their marriage in the most magnificent wedding during the most romantic era of European history

Principals: Emperor Napoleon III; Eugenie de Montijo, Countess of Teba; and her girlhood and lifetime love, the Duke of Sesto

Theme: The ultimate unrequited love story: a woman who tried to commit suicide twice, devastated that the Dukes of Alba and Sesto each preferred her sister. Eugenie reluctantly agreed to marry Napoleons nephew and emerged as one of the most powerful women in history.

Influence: The Vanderbilts and Astors spent millions copying her in Gilded Age Newport and New York. It was the strange fate of Eugenie Marie de Montijo...to become known...as one of the greatest beauties of her time, and later...personally influential in European events and destinies of three generations... (New York Times)

Unique Features: Recipe of original Imperial Wedding cake of 1853; recipe of Marie-Antoinettes favorite pastry

Timeliness: Current projects to rebuild the Tuilleries Palace and the Palace of Saint-Cloud, art-filled historic monuments burned in war and terror; the Louvre recently paid $10.7 for one of Eugenie's brooches; Eugenie's items at Metropolitan Museum of Art, N.Y., Louvre, Malmaison; Mexico and Cinco de Mayo; Imperial Wedding with 200,000 people at Notre-Dame Cathedral similar to Charles and Dianas in 1981 and Royal Wedding of 2011.
