

Next Gen DevOps: Creating The DevOps Organisation

The indispensable guide to building, launching and managing online services in the 21st century. Next Gen DevOps: Creating the DevOps organisation is a management guide for IT professionals and executives, in businesses large and small, that describes how the organisational paradigms of the last 60 years are unsuited to the modern business of combining SaaS, Clouds and DevOps solutions to create robust and successful online services. Now updated to include an examination of the DevOps industry leaders and a detailed guide to the Next Gen DevOps framework to help guide your business through its transformation journey.
