Excerpt from Pen-Pictures of the Officers and Members of the House of Representatives of the Twenty-Sixth General Assembly of Missouri: The series of personal sketches contributed at random to the columns of one of the city dailies, during the regular session, will be recognized as constituting the nucleus of the present volume. To collate these mid odd others thereto has afforded the writer pleasant employment for the leisure hours of the adjourned session, and in returning them to the public in a more permanent form, he begs leave to say that he does so to gratify the wishes of a few personal Mends, rather than any vanity of hie own. He may also he permitted tn this connection to return his thanks to Maj. T. O. Towles. of LaGrange, for the valued assistance on various rendered him by that gentleman.
