

New Jersey - The way I remember...

Much of my childhood was lived in the state of New Jersey. We moved there when I was in the second grade and I left there when I was a Freshman in High School. I have many fond memories and wanted to preserve them for my brothers and sister; my children and their children. Each chapter is separated by the addresses we lived at. From Springfield to Succasunna, from Lake Hopatcong to Randolph and everywhere in between. I hope you can identify with many of the experiences I included from your own childhood.
