

RSVP Rice and Stew Very Plenty

This compelling autobiography chronicles the life of Nazlin Rahemtulla, an Ismaili Muslim. Nazlin vividly depicts the origins of Ismailism, and traces her ancestry to the Gujarat in western India. The migration of her grandparents and parents to Uganda follows. She then recounts her early life in Jinja against the backdrop of turbulent Ugandan politics, the rise to power of the barbaric Idi Amin, and the devastating ouster of her family and other Asians from their country. The re-location of Nazlin and her family to Canada; their triumphs and pitfalls in the New World; their dedication to Ismailism; Nazlins career in Canadian business and finance; the complexities of reclaiming her familys Ugandan assets in the early 1990s; Nazlins meeting with President Museveni of Uganda; her decision about whether or not to return to East Africa to rejuvenate her fathers business; and her travels throughout the world with family and friends round out this enthralling saga.
