

Dunedin's Top Spots

Dunedin is not only one of the southern hemispheres best-preserved Victorian cities, it is also blessed with one of the most handsome settings of any in New Zealand, nestling in the hills and bordered by the unspoilt bays and swooping cliffs of the Otago Peninsula. In Dunedin's Top Spots local photographer David Wall shows off the top 50-plus locations that should be on any visitors list. Here are just a few of the many attractions of the city and environs: Octagon, Dunedin's epicentre and home of the Otago Museum, Public Library, Municipal Offices, St Pauls Cathedral, Regent Theatre; North End, home of the University, Botanic Gardens; Otago Peninsula - with historic Port Chalmers, penguins, seals, albatrosses; Taieri Gorge and Seaside scenic railways; Larnach Castle, Olveston House and other historic buildings. Top Spots titles are a great source of inspiration for family outings and make the perfect gift for visitors from farther afield.
