

Riddle of the Sands

Excerpt: ... send you a warp. It was impossible to refuse, but a sense of being personally conducted again oppressed me; and the last hope of a bed in the inn vanished. Davies was none too effusive either. A tug meant a pilot, and he had had enough of them. He objects to towage on principle, I said. Just like him! laughed the other. Thats settled, then! A dogcart was standing before the inn door in readiness for von Bruning. I was curious about Esens and his business there. Esens, he said, was the principal town of the district, four miles inland. I have to go there, he volunteered, about a poaching case
