

Tim Walker (Stern Portfolio)

As a London-based photographer and graduate of Exeter Art College in Oxford, Tim Walker learned from the greats. During an internship at Condé Nast he set up the Cecil Beaton archive. He also worked as Richard Avedon's assistant in New York. Since those days his style has blossomed into something on par with his early inspirations and mentors. His work appears in trend-setting magazines such as Vogue, W and Harpers Bazaar. He has also created advertising campaigns for exclusive clients such as Comme des Garçons, Yohji Yamamoto and Barneys. Walker's work mixes hyper-real fairytale with a dash of eccentricity. Although elegant, there's nothing stuffy about his work!
