

Undercover Agent; How One Honest Man Took on the Drug Mob...And Then the Mounties

It was North America's biggest drug bust, worth $238 million. The man behind it was a small-town businessman who fooled the Miami drug barons who were setting up a pipeline into Canada. Leonard Mitchell worked undercover for the RCMP for 19 months because it was the right thing to do. He was successful but it earned him a lifetime run from the mob and he also had to take on the Mounties.
