

Put Your Big Girl Panties On Diet

In my book I tell about how diets are like pushing an elephant up a hill. I associated diets to underwear. The good and the bad about diets. I collected a lot of sayings to go along with the diets and life problems. Shirley Pumfrey has worked in a factory her entire life. Her family comes first, then her job. Sometimes she would like to keep her dog, Doc, and get rid of her husband. Being married for more than 35 years is more like a test for her. Sometimes she doesn't understand how her husband has put up with her for so long. Some days she can barely stand herself! Shirley and her husband enjoy antiques. Cheap antiques that is! Some of her friends say they have a house from the 70s, but looks like a museum. Shirley's first book, Kripe Im Petered, is available for you to purchase. She has several other manuscripts coming soon to share!
